I just love travelling

Nick and Natalie love travelling. They just can't stay in one place. They love visiting, exploring, discovering or simply relaxing. Travelling is part of their life together.

They actually met when travelling. Nick was on his office annual _____ to Singapore. Natalie was going to have an _____ (of about one month) to her sister's in Australia. She had to change her _____ so she decided to have a _____ in Singapore. She wasn't in the mood of spending one day in the departure lounge of the airport so she took a _____ to the Southern Ridges to walk on the famous trail that links three parks. And there, walking, wandering, inhaling the beauty of Singapore, she bumped into Nick, who was doing the same thing. They started chatting and by the end of the day, they both abandoned their initial plans. Singapore turned into a _____ of two days, then a romantic _____ for two in Malaysia, and the travelling never stopped for them.

Now, they are planning to get married on a _____. They want to combine the luxurious wedding on a large ship with a honeymoon of relaxation and visiting.

- Cruise = a journey on a large ship for pleasure, during which you visit several places.
- Stopover = a short stay in a place that you make while you are on a longer journey to somewhere else.
- Flight = a journey in an aircraft.
- Weekend break = a short holiday (usually at the end of the week).
- Flying visit = a very short visit.
- Excursion = a short journey usually made for pleasure, often by a group of people.
- Day trip = a journey that you make for pleasure in which you go to a place and come back on the same day.
- Extended stay = longer than usual.
